SECES-ION AT OUR VERY DO BS .-- A move ment having been made in the Board of Aldermen night before last, having a tendency to make the property holders on Hog Alley pay for the stapendous improvements now going on in that celebrated the roughfare, the fire-eating local of the Banner yesterday morning i-saed a calm, dignitied and statesmanlike proclamation, formally secoding from the Corporation. While in convention he passed a Personal Liberty Bill, under cover of which he proposes to e-cope up Hog Alley from the sheriff offic rs who may come to levy on his real estate or restrict his movements. He also passed a special act repudiating his "licker bells," and all other claims held against him.

So far so good. We have always said of South Carolina ' why, bless her, let her go,' and we say the same thing to our late con temporary. It he is unwilling to stay in the Corporation and demand of the Board of Aldermen the rights of the South--we mean the rights of Hog Alley-as guaranteed to her by the Constitution -- that is, by the charter, let him secode and set up an independent municipality on hi- own book. We are not in favor of coercion, and hope the Mayor will attempt nothing of the sort. As for ourselves, we intend to stay in the Corporation. We latend to await some overt act on the part of the Board before precipitating garselves into a revolution. Certain members of the Board may threaten to do this and that thing destructive of the sacred rights of Hog Alley, but until those rightare actually viorated, and we find that there is no hope of peace without secession, we by the mency of our foreinthers and cemented by some of the best mortar of the Revolution in the brick business. We know our rights, and knowing, dare maintain them. We do not conclive that those rights have vet been sufficiently "tramped on to" to Ju tify the extreme measures which have been resorted to by the local of the Buner, and which are likely to be resorted to under sim ilar circumstances by South Carolina, Tai Corporation is not a compact which may be dissolved by the breath of agitation, and hence there can be no such thing as placeable secession. The Manie pal Authorities they will not; but he cannot hope for a peaceable and a bloodless secession nevertheless; for one cannot be in his sober senses who will attempt to "go out" upon such a pretext, and must inevitably run against a lamp-post and mash his nose and thereby create an flasion of blood. But these powerhis illustrious prototype, South Carolina. It | Anglo-Saxon." is too late now for him to recede; let him

---THE Poor.-We suggested a short time since that a course of lectures be instituted this winter for the benefit of the poor, and we hoped that the suggestion would meet with encouragement from those who feel an interest in suffering humanity; but in this we have been disappointed, and we feel that it | Shoals, were useless to urge the matter further Those who are most able to relieve the wants of the destitute seem least inclined to do so. There are exceptions to the role, but they are not many. The plan we have suggested would cost nothing, and would, if properly carried out, yield a handsome -um to be divided among the destitute of the city. If a better and sarer plan can be found, let it be adopted and carried out.

therefore continue to 'secede, and when he gets tired, he can come back and rest.

The number of people now in Nashville who are destinute of the common in c s-ari s of life, is b lieved to be greater than at any Hamibal at Fr. Chartres, and Lelich at Tur former period. Unless something is done key Island. for their relief at once, the saff ring among them will be incalculable. Our citiz us wealthy and well-to-d , are in the habit of giving parties and balls every winter which cost them hundreds and thousands of dellars If they will give up these and b stow up n the needy and destitute the money they lavish in getting them up, is will be in the end the best and most profitable winter's work dren should not be permitted to starve in our midst; but some of them must come to that point unless they are more liberally aided by the hand of charity than usual,

THE THEATRE - ANOTHER CHANGE OF THE Programme. - When the curtain tell at the end of one of the plays night before last, it cut Mr. FLORENCE off from the stage and left him standing before the audience at the footlights. There were about a bundred peoplpresent, more or less, and fr the aspect of things they thought Mr. FLORENCE was going to make a speech, which the pit of the Nashville Theatre is the fondest thing of in the world. And sure enough he did. But it was not exactly the sort of speech that was expected. It was not a Fouth-of-July oration in the strictest sense of the term, nor was it a Fergusonian address on the political aspect of the country. It was an out and out on speech -a speech announcing that he was about to secod: from the establishment and try his luck elsewhere.

Mr. FLORENCE said that as Mrs. FLORENCE was suffering from a sore throat to such an extent that she was compelled to throw out the patronage of the Theatre was not sufficiently promising to justify him in continuing his engagement any longer, he had determined to bring it to an end that evening.

Which was accordingly done, and Mr. and Mrs. FLORENCE did not appear last night as per annoucement in the morning papers. This is to be regretted. It was hoped that their coming would "revive the drama" in our midst and set the Theatre up on a footing of prosperity that would last throughout the season. What the managers will now do for the entertalament of the public, we do not know. They seem not to be wanting in per-everance, and will do something to keep their establishment goldg, but what that something is has not yet transpired. There are plen ty of "theatrical nebulosities" to be had, and we presume we shall have the pleasure of announcing another star in a lew days.

PETITIONS are being circulated in Michigan, asking the forthcoming Legislature to repeal the personal liberty laws now on the statute

THE MAIDEN TO HER LOVER. TAKEN DOWN IN SHORT HAND BY BRICKS

Go, faire one, go i-no longer thou Canat claim the homage of this heart I dare not trust its hopes to one So wholly lost as now thou art! No more my soul shall sweetly thrill With wildering bliss when thou art near My love can flow no more to thee-I hold thine own no longer dear

Ah, little did I dream that thou Couldst wership at another shrine-To other altars bear the love Which, kn eing, thou didst lay on mine! I need not say how keen the pangs That pierce my bosom to its core, As I at Dury's call decree,

That thou and I must meet no more!

But Conscience, always just, presides, High priesters at the sacrifice, And holy Truth from Heaven appears To wipe the tear-drops from mine eyes. And if the tomb were yawning night To shroud me in its dread abyse,

I would not seek another hour To s y what I have said in this. Last eve we parted !- When this hand Was c asped with love's worm grasp in thine I felt that all the si kening gr of That severing souls may feel was mine

But w en our lip- so fondly met, My shuddering heart grew cold as de th, For thy dark guilt tuen stood revea ed-I smelt the brandy on thy breath!

Yesterday was as clear and bright a lay as you ever saw in any climate. Magdiffecut weather for shopping, but the ladies rave some how or other contrived to find out but money is not to be had, and the drygoods and fancy stores are comparatively desert d. Yet there was here and there a fair form on the street during the day, which compled with the bright sanshine, made the town look and feel cheerful ug in.

Nashville, December 13th, 18:0. The indications yesterday were that there is a gradual relaxation in the tightness of the money market. We heard of offers to lean money to solvent, punctual, property holders, in considerable sums, at a rate of interest much less than has been usual of late. These offers were made by persons who, not being able to get gold to lay by, desired to invest, and having no dence in State bonds or other accurities, prefered to loan to sound reliable men. As the banks con tinue to discount, we hope now to see a much better condition of things; though, until there is another full crop, entire relief cannot be expected. Uncurrent money is becoming equalized, and in a short time, we feel confident, the heavy discounts which the public have been compelled to submit to will be numbered with toe things that were. Exchange could hardly be had yesterday at any price. The regular banking rate was 1 per cent pr5mium; street and broker's notes 4@5 per cent.

THE AMALGAMATION OF LANGUAGES.—There is a grow ing tendency in this age to appropriate the most ex-pressive words of other languages, and after a while to incorporate them into our own; thus the word Ca-phalle, which is from the Greek, signifying "for the head," is now becoming popularized in connection with Mr. Spalding's great Headache remedy, but it will soon be used in a more general way, and the word Combain will become as common as Electricia. Cephalic will become as common as Electrotype and many others whose distinction as foreign words has been worn away by common usage until they some Constipation or Costiveness. No one of the "many ills flesh is heir to" is so pre valent, so little understood, and so much neglected a Costiveness Often originating in carelessness, or sedentary habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excite anxiety, while in re-ality i is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerous diseases, and unless early eradicated it will bring the sufferer to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evils of which costiveness is the usual attendant, are Headache, Colle, Rheoma tism, Foul Breath, Piles and others of like nature while a long train of frightful diseases such as Malig nant Fevers, Abcesses, Dysentary, Diarrhea, Dyspep sia, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteria, Hypo-chondrasis, Melancholy and Insanity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symp

tom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorde should riceive immediate attention whenever it of curs, and no person should neglect to get a box of Ge phalic Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, a heir timely use will expel the insuluous approaches o and destroy this dangerous fee to human life
